EDITO LKJ / TRANSCOM

Some insult letters, some congratulation letters (a bit less) about CCCP. The main defect seems to be the english mistakes.

I answer to a idiot from Switzerland (Yeah, you know the country which don't got any cracker !) who telles me bullshit about CCCP. Wanker, it's very easy to insult a guy by a letter, perhaps have you not give your opinion to the official spreader of CCCP at the party in Geneva b-coz he was 1.98m tall ? Coward...

How work CCCP ?

For the european charts and now USA charts, it works like this : I take the ranked lists in the cracks of well-known groups and I make the average, simple isnt'it ? And I pull out each time our name for honesty (NOOOO, I don't want to mean some guys aren't fair but they aren't so much objective !)

An issue is brought out at each big meeting announced, meaning not every month.

Oh I wonder what you do with CCCP ? On 200 copy spread out, only 4 guys out of Transcom wanna write somme articles !!! So if you like CCCP to use it in the toilets, WE HAVE THOUGHT OF YOU BY GIVING YOU THIS ASS-WIPE SHEET, SOFT AND SMOOTH, COOL AND PERFUMED.

AREN'T WE COOL, EH ???

Contact us and send your articles and drawings.

TILT

This title is also the name of a computer magazine in France. Reading the last issue, I was quite amazed by an article about a "Anti-Pirate". Here is what they wrote in :

- a cracking group is mixed of a cracker, an original supplier and some swappers (aren't they right ???).
- speed is the main factor which increases notoriety of a cracking group.
- crackers are proud to put their names in what they call 'an intro', set before the crack. An intro contains their name on a big logo, a music, and a scroll-text which gives info about the cracking group, the game itself, and they greet all their friends around the world (Whhhhaaouuuu !!!).
- the pirates know all stuff to enter free in the shows, have the originals for free and so on. He, he, they tell also it was a shame some dudes in the PCS in London walk free with a free card entrance and a T-Shirt which proved they were pirates (note from LKJ : at the show, with my LKJ of TRANSCOM t-shirt, some lammers told me to pull out my t-shirt b-coz I could have troubles with software-house. At the same moment the FAIRLIGHT GANG does his apparition .../...).

(.../... Waow, with all these caps and T-Shirt written Fairlight, "Beyond all imagination", who can think there aren't a cracking group ??? But, do you know a guy enough crazy to tell to the tall fair-haired Tony : 3 You cracker, you're under arrest !" ... You will see this guy flying above the show with some limbs in less).

The Tilt article was meanly for amiga users, where they put some intros of these following groups : DEF-JAM, RED SECTOR, QUARTEX, WORLD OF WONDERS, ACKERLIGHT (read the French news), MAD MONKS.

THE WAR IS DISTANT

May be you noticed some troubles between X-Ray and Cosmos ? But did you know this was me the guilty ? Therefore, I give you explanations about this mistake.

Sometimes before Christmas, I received this article from X-Ray :

Well, a lamer group called Cosmos write in every issue of Illegal that we are the number one in Austria (hahaha !!!). My brother which was 12 years old can better crack as the guys from Cosmos, and the only group which you can give the 1st place is X-Ray coz our member make the shortest and best trained games and he don't link our intro in front of the game and said CRACKED like Cosmos, so remember the number one in Austria is X-Ray 4383 Ltd.

After that, I had the choice :

1° I publish it without any chance for Cosmos answering ("it cool ? I don't believe, I remember the filthy declaration of Illegal : "Is IKARI only able to freeze..."". Sorry Jeff, I don't understand why have you published this against IKARI that you consider being friend ?"

2° I send it to Cosmos by allowing the answer and if they make a war after, it's not my problem...

Finally, the war is clean, and here is the answer of Cosmos :

Thanx for the letter !

However, after hours of using my dictionary, I came to the sense of each sentence of the X-Ray's article. I only have the adress of the Austrian member so I called him the same day and asked him why they start telling bullshit without any pre-warning.

The fact is that the Austrian didn't even know about that. He told me it must have been Timoc who wrote that to you, LKJ.

Well, this article doesn't mind us, a little german lamer can obviously not inform anyone about Austria's scene, so I suggest an Austria group for the Austrian scene, ok ?

NB : The Austrian X-Ray member (who by the way is founder, main-coder/cracker and main swapper) is on brilliant term with us, so :

No chance for a war-situation between COSMOS - X-RAY.

Aniway, many thanks for letting me know it so quickly.

So, was I right ???

FRENCH NEWS

All is finished, not anymore living group on Amiga in France !!!

Megaforce France and Ackerlight : BUSTED !

- Yep, the best groups on Amiga in France are dead ! Fred (musician), Dark Angel (cracker), and H.SYL (the main cracker) of Ackerlight got busted by the police these few weeks. So this is the end of them, the main traitors are the software house Ocean/France and Loriciels who got their adress by reading classified (their work is make easy by the cooperation of the fuck'in magazine Tilt who is adhered in the APP (Association for the Program Protection), all strange classified go directly to the APP !!!).

Therefore, in France, software-piracy on Amiga is stopped, from now. Some members of Ackerlight are coding a game, while the others are speaking of built the group again, future will tell...

On 64, Transcom still ruling the country of the frog's eaters. No competition, only a bunch of lamers who are struggling for the second place.

Do you remember the last CCCP article about the French scene ? We told BYG was a recrackers'group and they had rip some parts of demos to make more easy theirs... Now they've made a anti-TCOM disk of lame demos. More about this :

- It contains the new BYG compactor+ !!! Waooww, in the intro, they write theirs is better than the Galleon's one (What a comparaison !!!). But here's now the LKJ comparaison :

Led Storm 241 blk (0801-f666, just a test)

* BYG compactor : 216 blk

* Time Cruncher v3.1 (the first I had near from me) speed 2 : 150 blk.

So, at the launching of "your" compactor, it has been already dead !

The most exhilarating is when you write :

"Hey NFC, try to convince your contacts to use our compactor..."

BYG, can we try to convince our contacts ??? Gollum, please, use the BYG compactor+ !!!

- in your demos (demos ??? I prefer to call that an intro followed by another intro), I've a tips to decrease the block size (No, not by using your BYG compactor+), pull off the word "Fuck" and it will be certainly shorter. You use this word because you didn't know anything else to express your vengeance. Your name is quite significant, Babygang, and your slogan (very original) proves you're really lame :

"For the best, trade with the BYGest !!!"

LKJ - MALIBU - FIRES / TRANSCOM

NIGHT HUNTER

The name of new game by UBI-SOFT, "made" by a fat hog called Guy... This game is the 64 adaptation of Dracula on Atari ST. Firstly, you wanna ask to M.O.N. for a music, but when he knew the price (I understand him), he refused. So, he decided to make a music himself... until now, nothing surprising. But when he coded the game and did the graphics, he saw it wasn't easy, so : He called UNKNOW/TRANSCOM for his help. Unknow helped him a little bit, then more and more and finally transposed himself (Unknow) all the graphics from ST to 64. But for the guy, this was so hard even with all this help, then Unknow makes the coding. So, once time I had guy on the phone, I asked how much money will he send to Unknow... Answer from Guy : "eeeeuuuhhhhhh..." and finally reaches to tell "Nothing !!!". Isn't he a filthy guy, Guy ?

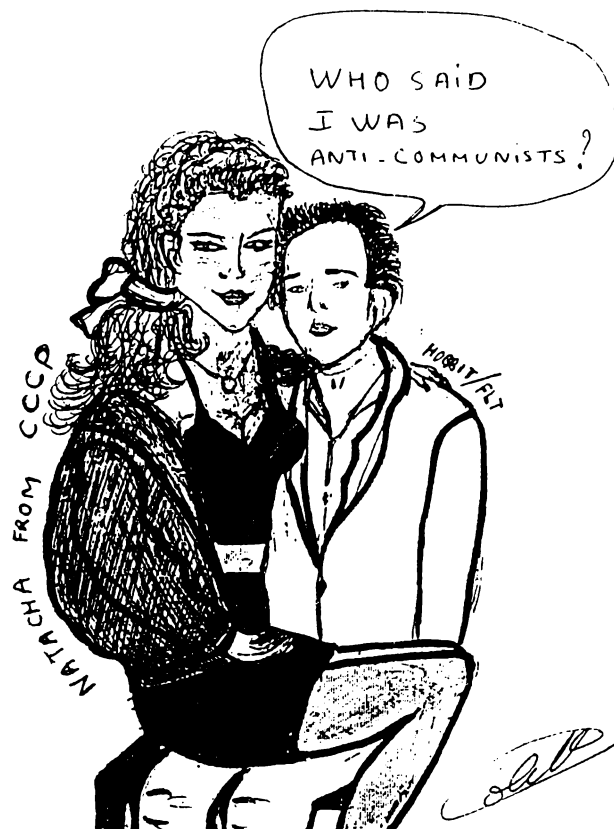

Note that Unknow didn't want asking money for his work, but I think Guy can give a little part, normal uh ???

So, now Guy, everybody is aware that UNKNOW of TRANSCOM made the game, and not you. But that's you who'll be famous, and Unknow stay anonymous, except if I restore truth by sending this article to UBI-SOFT. Huummm, not a bad idea... /LKJ

OK, I've enough place to show you this fab drawing made by Colette.

A girlfriend who is not bad looking, mainly her perfect hips, her thighs smooth and browned, her bosoms and their nipples standing up.

WOW,
Colette !!!

AUSTRIAN NEWS

Here is Cosmos to tell you the latest news from the south. We weren't active that much in the past, so the up-climbing austrian group called X-Ray is worth being mentioned as real best lately. But the last days showed that we gonna be active like hell again, so Cosmos is about to be number one again in the future. It's the first time there is a real fast group besides Cosmos, so we also have a feeling of competition, which is, as I think, not bad at all. Unfortunately nothing else happened, except a well talented Austrian musician joined Beyond Force, some lamers here claim to be members of Ikari and some good Amiga-coders joined Cosmos Amiga-section.

On the Amiga, Megaforce rules, followed by Subway, that's it for today, at the end, some personnal hellos to: IKARI (UK+DK), BROS (N), TRANSCOM, X-RAY (AUT), FAIRLIGHT, F4CG, ELITE, TRIANGLE and all others !

SSD / COSMOS

THE SCENE

- Dominators are back to burn ! After cleaning as they told, DOM is back without JCH, ROOZE and ZOO-LOOK (this last looked cool, a great loss) who will form a new brand group called CHANNEL 42. DOM is now the rest + some ex-NOISE members.

- Tri-Dos has stopped ! Ouch, a big loss for Ikari. Paul, the guy who has contribute (not like Doc+Gandalf in DK) to the climbing of Ikari to the 1st place left now the scene because of his computer broken or something like that. He will continue on Amiga, then on 64, Ikari will be sustained only by Just-Ice.

- The next Transcom copy-party will be in October, in Paris. More about later...

- SPC of ex-TWG and now in ..... got busted by the police. So he prefer to stop swapping.

- Axiom in Munchen of BB stops trading to sell intros. At the price, he sell them, I believe he can wait...

That's all for this issue, I am waiting for your news.

LKJ / TRANSCOM

HAPPY BIRTHDAY JEFFIE !

Like it is written in the Jeffie's birthday demo by Fame : "They wish you a happy birthday : Ikari, DCS, Fairlight (...) and all the others around the globe".

NO. We in TRANSCOM aren't in the "others" b-coz we don't wish you a happy birthday Jeff. We don't care you're nineteen. It was 19 years of bullshit accumulated and your life was nothing, 19 years lost by writing your shitty mag, what a dirty life ! Drive your 19 candles in your ass and go away !!!

End of denial, Transcom (Still kickin' ass in 89).

X - MEN UK

Yo all, here is the one and only Acid of X-Men, who ?? You might ask well I used to be in the group "Sigma", then "Legend", and "Zenith". I've quit 64, now Amiga rules. As people know I take computing as something to do when not at partys or fucking women !!! Hey all loser ..... don't say were the best !!! Fuck the rest if it wasn't for the rest your stuff wouldn't get spread ??? Think about it !!!

OK a few personnal ..... men, I'm off until next week. All at Transcom (Esp. LKJ - Malibu - Greystoke + the mob who visit me all the time), Gene / Brosettes (barff, you lamer !!!)

Ole/Future, all in Legend + the rest.

VENLO - HEINSBERG REPORT by Just-Ice/IKARI

This is the text of Party of 88... Perhaps have you not already read it and that's boring to write again something better made. So here it is.

They write the year 1988 ! Most crackers busted in Germany... Holland and Denmark... But the mother fucker cops can fuck off and leave us to have the fun we have at all the meetings and parties, we so enjoy !

Firstly me (Just-Ice), Tri-Dos and Andy from DCS meet in London to take the train to catch the boat to holland ! Unfortunately, the English scousers did not go but still its there loss !

After the long journey we are now on the boat... We book a cabin to stay in and dump all our bags... Then we check out the duty-free shop for drink ! While walking round in the shop Tri-Dos examines some sport shoes displayed on a shelf but then when Tri-Dos picks up a shoe, the whole shelf broke and all the shoes fell to the floor... HAHAAH !!! Andy and me were in hysterics !!! Anyway we find some drink and buy it... We head back to the cabin to have a drink !!! We bought this shit that looked like blue bols and was fairly discuting ! After getting pissed off with this stuff and Tri-Dos literally pissed ! We take a trip to the bar... On the way to the bar, we saw this deranged skinhead fallings about the place... He screams at us "Wheres the toilet !". We point the direction, but I think its too late coz he pissed his trousers ! HEHEHE... We quickly move onto the bar ! After finnaly getting served and had some beer ! We find our way back to the cabin the drunken job (or Tri-Dos said, he was on acieeed !!!) was now involved in a fight with some germans ! Shit, we leave quickly ! Entering the cabin Andy wants to hear his music wich included the Smiths and others stuff ! Tri-Dos complained, coz he wanted to play the Pet Shop Boys (UHHH). Before, we were gonna sleep (time was about 4.00), Tri-Dos removes his clothes and wears only his underpants ! We dare him to put a sheet on his head and wander outside the cabin.... Andy said he would do the same but first Andy went out the door and Tri-Dos closed the door !!! But now the fun starts, coz Tri-Dos opened the door and Andy came back in and locked Tri-Dos outside with only a sheet and his underpants ! People were laughing and shouting at him to stop make a noise ! Others stared in amazement and wondered wot he was doing. Things halted when a geezer was complaining his kids had to sleep so we had to let him in ! Ok I think it was time to sleep !!! - / / / / / / / / / / -

We wake up 20 minutes before the boat docks ! Shit, we hurriedly got dressed and washed and left the cabin (in a state !). We caught the train from Hook of Holland to Venlo ! After 2.5 hours, we arrived at Venlo. Shit, we were hungry after asking many people if they spoke english, we found MacDonalds and ate load sashit food ! Now we had to find the Venlo meeting, but we not sure in fact were it was ! We travelled up streets and streets until we found a route to the hall (It took us 1.5 hours tio find it). On the way, we had heard that this meeting was to be cancelled ! Shit, we hoped not... We got there and felt relieved that it was open.

We went inside and saw all the friends we knew and also a lot more. Groups and persons I can remember at the moment are : Hotline (Sledge, Tss, Henk, Ron, Radix, Rico and Side) - Strike Force (all members, I think there was so many) - Jeff Smart and T'Kay - DeeJay - Mr Zero Page and the Preacher of Red Sector - Mr Cursor and some other of the Wanderer Group - 711 - the Syndicate of Beastie Boys - Paco and Bam Bam of Bros - DSH of Orion - Antitrack and Big Ben of Cosmos - Shining 8 - MWE of Radwar - Hitcher of CFR - Fire Eagle - Drive - X-Ray - Zenobits - TMC and JT of Mon - Hobbit of Fairlight (RWE party only) - World of Wonders - Bamiga Sector One - Unitrax. Shit, I think this was all !!! (note from Transcom : Weren't we there ? Bad memory !). Magazines released were The Illegal, Crackers Comics N°5, the Iguana, Errr Oh Smasher and CCCP (not for you Toni) !!! Now, it was time for a drink, coz you know how hot and crowded this place becomes. I talked with Jeff Smart for a while to decide where we where going next ! Oh yeah, we were to appear on a german TV Station live. In Köln Germany. Many cars were needed to take us all there. After meeting everybody from Germany, Holland, Belgium, Austria, we left the meeting and all waited outside the building (no not inside the building from TWG !!!). Bam Bam was causing havoc with theses illegal bangers and wot a fucking noise they made ! I think this was the last time this meeting is to be held in Venlo coz I think its being moved location. The coke and fries shop will surely loose a lot of business. We all separated to the cars in wich we were getting lifts from... I was travelling with Mr Cursor, Mr Zero Page, a guy from 711, and I'm not sure of the other guys name. We took along trip to Köln with many shouting of the word lynx. I much prefer zip myself HEHEHE !!! They were ofcourse meaning left. These auto bahns were well weird. After an hours travelling, we arrived at Köln...

Phew wot a busy place !!! We look every where for a parking place but end up in a big car park. We go to the TV Studio... Why the others exchange words of german to the guy behind the security desk ? The mans seems angry. I just waiting for something to happen. Its now half past four and he wont let us in until 6 o'clock. We decide to eat at Macdonalds. After ordering some food, Andy, T'Kay, Jeff Smart and DeJay arrive also with Strike Force and Cosmos, but Tri-Dos, Bam Bam and the guys in Zenobits are missing. We eat loads a food and talk alot. We then leave to go to the TV Station. We wait a while coz they won't let us in ! We then meet two guys from the World of Wonders and talk with them for a while...

At 6 o'clock, we go into the TV Station and again wait for them to open the the doors. They looked surprised at how many people there was ! Not thinking that the best crackers of the World was present, they finnaly let us in. I can't believe we are to appear live on german TV, in Enland you could never just walk into the BBC !!! We all crowded into the little space where we are suppose to sit. There was cameras and lighting all around and loads a TV's. Markus of RWE was to appear live on TV to talk about the cracking scene in Germany. Everybody was clapping for Markus and not for the lame lawyer who opposed him !!! As we were waiting for the program to start the woman organising the whole thing asked us if we had heard of Elite. Fucking lamer bitch, we just all laughed ! After the TV program, we waited around to travel onto the party in Heinsberg...

After getting out of the car park playing Run Dmc on the stereo at mega hertz while Mr Cursor hunted for the ticket to get us out the place. It was more shouting the german word "lynx". We drove on more autobahns... By now I was feeling a little tired coz I only had 2 hours sleep since Friday. We drove many many miles at one stage we came to a screechin halt as Mr Cursor nearly drove off in a wrong direction. But luckily some girls !!! Let us pull out in front of them and let us carry on !! After 1 to 2 hours we arrive at Heinsberg to join the rest in the mighty illegal and Radwar christmas party. When Jeff Smart, T'Kay, DeeJay and Mr Sulu arrived they tell us they were in a small accident. Oh shit, no one was hurt but still DeeJay had some dent in the side of his car. Some lamer drove into him !!! Hope it will be okay DeeJay !

We now entered the party and there I met one of my coolest friends from Belgium off course Hobbit/Fairlight, he gave me the new Crackers Comics N°5 and also a new disk cover he made for us. Thanx a lot mate. I also like the SCG disk cover !!! Very appropriate ! I got a beer from the bar but the glasses were not that big so we drank 2 at a time. We talked a lot again and watched the side shows put on by the disco, then Tri-Dos appeared together with Bam Bam and Zenobits. Tri-Dos drank a few beers and a few vodkas and by no time was pissed out of his head. He wandered about ! Falling around the place ! By now me, Jeff Smart, Andy, T'Kay had enjoyed a load of beers but Tri-Dos didn't take to the drink very well. When the Pet Shop Boys music came on Andy and Jeff Smart tried to grab him to dance to it but he just fell back to his seat ! More time past and we all drank more and freaked about the place. Around 1 or 2 o'clock the place was about to empty. Tri-Dos was standing at one bar with some guys from Strike Force and he push a glass up the bar and it smashed all over onto the floor ! Thanks to Caos/Strike Force for the vodka ! The girls behind the bar were not bad looking ! But they couldn't speak no english and when you paid for a drink they had these like little purses !!! Lame !!! Soon a lot of us gathered around the dance floor area, Tri-Dos was no leaning up all over the bar area several times. The girls behind the bar was kinda mad. We left him there for a while and freaked around by the dance floor pushing people and stuff into each other and dancind and shit ! We then all all crowded round a table and started hammering on the tables and shouting and pushing into each other, me and Jeff Smart think were the fuck has Tri-Dos disappeared too... We look around the place, check the toilets and stuff ! We have a look outside and theres Tri-Dos up against the wall throwing up his guts again. Me, Jeff and Bam Bam laughing and making jokes ! We try to talk to him but we just kept getting shit replys back !!! We go back inside coz its cold out there.

By now its gone 2 o'clock and the place is beginning to close. After Mr Cursor and the rest staggered out. Well he still has to drive home !!! Don't konw how !!! Mr Zero Page was also drunk I think. I went to the car to get my bag and say good ye to MZP, Mr Cursor and the others. I almost loose my Run DMC tape as the car pulls away, the car swerves off into the distance and I go back to the party place to sort out Tri-Dos... By now there is a big gathering outside the place. Everyone laughing at Tri-Dos coz he still throwing up. We must decide wot to do ! The programmer of Hawkeye went up to Tri-Dos and said did you crack my Hawkeye ? Tri-Dos replies YES and we all laugh... He say don't crack any of my games !!! Wot a laugh that is. One of the Rad-war guys Arnd (a cool guy) said we could go to his house sleep but he was worried about Tri-Dos chucking up his guts every where ! He said, he would drive us to Venlo Station. We say good bye to Jeff, T'Kay and DeeJay and all thats left by now is me, Tri-Dos, Mr Sulu, Bam Bam and Arnd of Rwe. He drove us all the way to Venlo which we thank him again for.

WHERE IS CFR ?

by Angel Eddy /OCS

A couple of months ago, one of the most well-known groups on the 64 disappeared without a trace. Commando Frontier have been around for as long as most of us remember. I remember, when we were still small pirates to get their cracks and trainers. I also remember when they decided to stop cracking and be a demo-group only... A new time come with quality demos appearing every two weeks, especially by the norwegian Kid Genius called Human.

In 88, the group changed rapidly, a lot of members left the group (Human to TDF, Stef to Argus, Anubis became Hobbit of FLT, the Jew. Dakota and Black Label went to the Band (Amiga).

Reasons for leaving were diverse but some people said that they had arguments with the ever-present leader of CFR "Mad All", but there is no proof to that. So now all that..... Bubuland, Cavi, Mad All and Ram, but they soon were joined with some new members like Hitcher (ex-Argus, a swap for Stef), Prince & Shadow (ex the Austria crew), Photony (ex-Pleasure, ex-Transcom) and Leto II (ex-Transcom). This was the line-up for 88 and it was one of their most successful years with lot of demos and the famous theme-disks (X-Mas disk, Easter disk and Watch it disk)

But in September 88 everything stopped, why, well a few phonecalls reveals this. Cavi (the musician) has sold his 64 and now studies LAW. Bubuland ... just plays games on Amiga. Prince & Shadow are doing their military service in the Austrian Army. Photony was caught by the cops and stopped. Leto II and Ram are making big money at being programmers for UBI-SOFT where they are finishing Iron Lord. Hitcher still swaps on the 64 and is leaving to program the Amiga. Mad All has been caught by the cops for mail-fraude. Now, he hates the 64, lost his PO-Box and all contacts and is busy working with the Amiga in his new home in a different city (where he lives alone and is studying Public-Relations).

Although they all claim that CFR has not split-up is in difficult to see them continue... CFR has always been more an institute than a group, every 3 months the line-up changed and guys come and left. Programmers from other groups contributed stuff to their demos at of friendship. But Mad All and Bubuland were the two members that have always been in CFR, in the last year Mad All was alone leader of CFR as Bubuland gave him complete control.

But now that Bubuland stopped and Mad All is living in a secret-place with no phone or known address it is difficult to see them continue.

May be the famous slogan : Only the Strongest Survive should be changed to : Only the Strongest survive but some retire !!!

When we arrived at Holland Hook a boat was leaving for England in an hour so we boarded it and booked another cabin... We slept again for a few hours and when we woke up it seemed like the mornings !!! We even missed the fucking duty-free shop coz it was closed !!! Me and Andy left the cabin while Tri-Dos slept to get some food from the restaurant coz we were really hungry. After we spent the rest of the dutch money on the fruit machines and I won about 12 pounds !!! Coooll !!! Whilst waiting to get off the boat we saw the drunken yob again the one of was involved in the fight with the germans !!! He still seemed deranged. His mates were taking the piss out of him and calling Eddy. We left the boat to find that we had to be searched by the customs... As they were going through the bags, they saw disks and the covers and also all the pirate magazines !!! Wonder wot they thought !!! After changing up all my winnings from the slot machine we had to get on a coach coz trains to London were canceled... We saw the lamer Eddy falling about the place and thought shit hope he aint on the same coach. We got as far away as possible from him !!! The coach journey took about an hour and half. We soon arrived at London and then to separate on our ways home.

Well you have read a lot of text !!! Hope you enjoyed it !!! This was surely one of the best parties of 1988 and we will be back to turn in 1989 so look out for us next year. Thanks again to every one who drove us around in the foreign lands and greetings to every one we met there...

All the best from Just-Ice and the rest of IKARI...
